

ROB SIMPSON

Manager

BE (Hons), BA – University of Queensland
MIEAust • MAusIMM • GAICD • RPEQ

With extensive experience in the provision of mining, energy and infrastructure consulting services from technical expert and due diligence, through to studies, detailed design and project execution, Robert is heavily involved in infrastructure and environmental management and approvals consulting projects. With an operational and project delivery background, Robert has held various senior roles in the consulting industry and has provided significant management and oversight of consulting services to the industry.

Expertise

- Technical expert reports: Study and project delivery, infrastructure, capital expenditure estimates and expert witness
- Due diligence: Infrastructure, capital expenditure and management of multidisciplinary due diligence reports across geology, mining, process, infrastructure, approvals and financial
- Advisory: Provide advice to owners teams for optimisation, studies and delivery
- Studies: Concept, pre-feasibility, feasibility and supplementary study management across geology, mining, process, infrastructure, approvals and financials
- Design: Detailed design for construct only or design and construct contracts across all aspects of infrastructure and industrial plant.

Career Highlights

- Xenith Consulting: Providing multidisciplinary study/project management, and infrastructure and environmental management and approvals expertise, due diligence and expert report management for resources, energy and infrastructure clients
- Austmine Ltd: Current non-executive director of the peak membership body for suppliers to the mining industry
- METS Ignited Australia Ltd: Board advisory committee member of the federal government funded body furthering the Australian mining equipment, technology and services industry
- Infrastructure Association of Queensland: Former board member
- WSP | Parsons Brinckerhoff: Responsible for project development and delivery governance for the Australian energy, mining and industrial consulting business
- WSP | Parsons Brinckerhoff: Mining technical sector representative for Australia and New Zealand, and global co-ordinator.

Professional Experience

Manager	2015 – Current	Xenith Consulting Pty Ltd
Non-Executive Director	2014 – Current	Austmine Ltd
Board Member	2012 – 2015	Infrastructure Association of Queensland
General Manager Development – Resources	2012 – 2015	WSP Parsons Brinckerhoff
Engineering Executive – Energy, Mining and Industry	2004 – 2012
Superintendent / Manager	1994 – 2004	Amcor Ltd